Timber Creek buffet in Valley closing

The Timber Creek Grill Buffet is permanently closing in Spokane Valley, the restaurant announced Wednesday.

In a Facebook post, Timber Creek Grill Buffet said it's liquidating equipment and decor, including ovens, grills, kitchen utensils, dinnerware, wall art, tables and chairs, among other items.

Timber Creek Grill Buffet, at 9211 E. Montgomery Ave. in Argonne Village, will be open 12-4 p.m. daily for the liquidation sale, according to the Facebook post.

The restaurant encouraged patrons in the Facebook post to "come show your support one last time to a local restaurant veteran as he begins a new venture."

Timber Creek Grill Buffet was unavailable for comment.

Father-and-son duo Paul and Greg Klinke opened the restaurant in 2008, according to a Spokesman-Review article.

Brent and Greg Klinke are the current registered owners of the restaurant, according to Washington State Department of Revenue records.
